Set 1 Book 8: Muff and Ruff

The word to can be a difficult word to sound out because the o does not represent the sound previously learned. The o in the word to, represents an ew sound. Practice saying the ew sound and look at the child saying the ew sound below.

Now point to the highlighted o in the sound chart below. The o is there because o can sometimes represent the ew sound.

Read the word to below. Cut out the graphemes (letters) below. Then match the graphemes (letters) to the pictures of the mouths saying the words, and glue. Write the word on the handwriting lines.

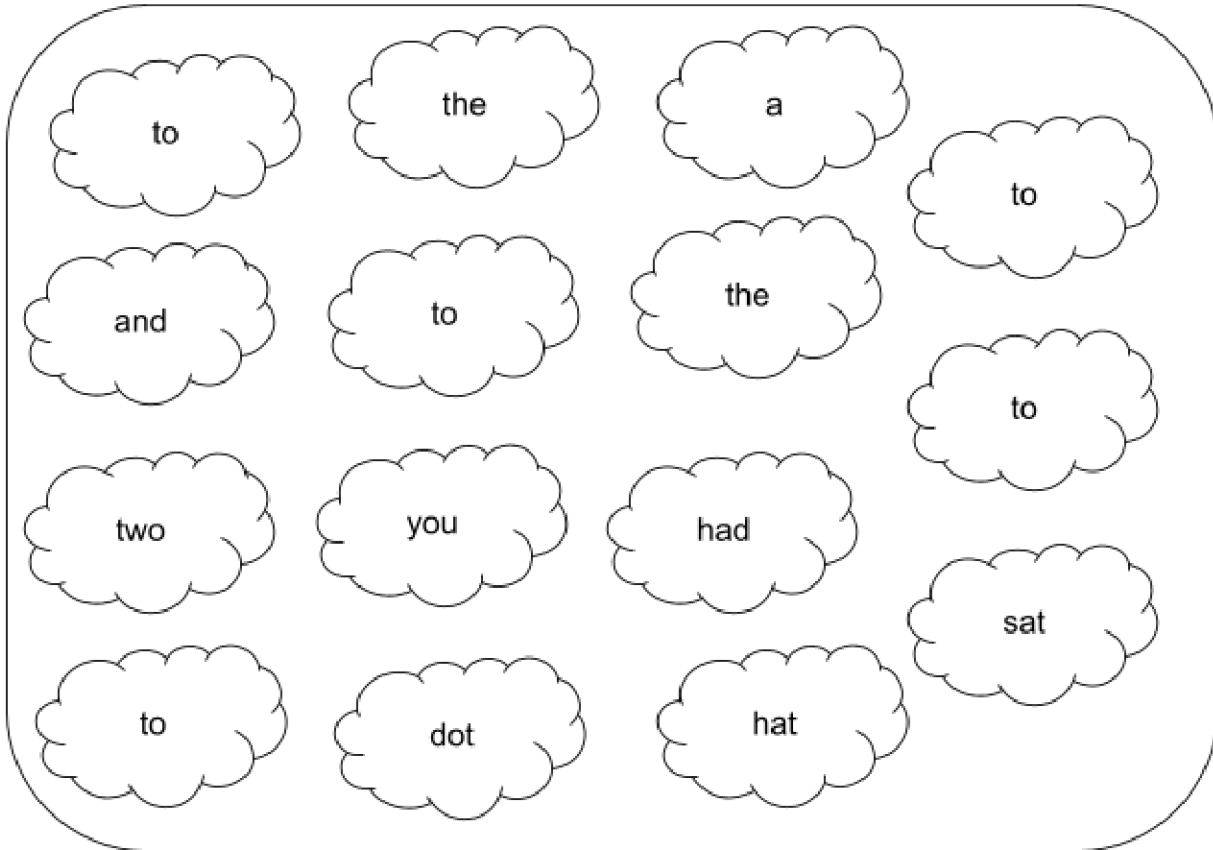

Handwriting lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.
